The University of Freiburg ...

... was founded in 1457 and is one of the oldest and most prestigious research universities in Germany.

... is, like no other university in Germany, a true comprehensive university with 11 faculties, combining classical fields from the humanities, the social and natural sciences, and medicine with environmental sciences, life sciences and engineering, and offers 183 degree programs at all academic levels.

... is home to 10 Nobel laureates.

... is one of only two universities in Germany to be distinguished in all three nationwide competitions – for research (“Excellence Initiative”), for instruction (“Excellent Teaching”, “Quality Pact for Teaching”), and for continuing education (“Advancement through Education: Open Higher Education Institutions”).

... is a member of the exclusive “League of European Research Universities” (LERU), an association of high-ranking European research universities.

... has roughly 23.000 students (15% of them international students), 380 full professors, and 6.400 academic personnel.

... offers English-language master programs in a broad range of disciplines.

... is the leading e-learning university and offers online master programs in Photovoltaics, Intelligent Embedded Microsystems, Medical Physics and Technology, Periodontology and Implant Therapy, Palliative Care, and Taxation.

... offers structured PhD programs in all academic fields (doctoral research groups, international research training groups, graduate schools).

... offers language courses at the Language Teaching Centre (SLI) to help students prepare for all degree programs.

... is connected to the Freiburg University Medical Center, a tertiary care hospital with 9.000 employees that covers all medical disciplines and ranks among the largest medical facilities in Europe.

... is located in the heart of Freiburg, one of Germany’s most beautiful cities – known as the “Capital of the Black Forest” and the “Green City” – and is right around the corner from both Switzerland and France.
